Marshalls becomes a Patron of CRASH

CRASH is delighted to announce that Marshalls has become a Patron Partner, working with CRASH to improve the lives of vulnerable people who have been homeless or adults and Children who need end of life care in a hospice, by transforming the buildings they need.

As a Patron Partner of CRASH, Marshalls will share their practical skills, building materials and donations to help homelessness charities and hospices with their vital construction projects.

Francesca Roberts, Chief Executive of CRASH, said:

“We are honoured to welcome Marshalls as a Patron Partner of CRASH. What CRASH achieves is only possible thanks to the generosity and support of our Patron companies and their commitment to helping people when they are most in need.”
