

Introduction

This code sets out Marshalls' commitment to operating its business with integrity i.e. in the Marshalls Way. It makes clear that we don't tolerate bribery and corruption. It explains the policies and procedures we've adopted in support of this and the role all our colleagues and those representing our business play in upholding these.

Our Business

'Create Better Spaces' and 'Futures for Everyone', socially, environmentally and economically'

Established in the 1890s, Marshalls is the UK's leading hard landscaping manufacturer and supplier of innovative sustainable concrete and natural stone products for the commercial and domestic sector.

Our brick and paving products are installed in homes and gardens across the country and some of the most prestigious landmarks in the UK, including Trafalgar Square and London's South Bank are created using Marshalls' products.

Marshalls have made a commitment to our customers, partners and stakeholders to operate ethically and sustainably. From fairly traded stone to low carbon concrete bricks, we recognise that we can create better spaces by putting people, communities and the environment first.

Anti-bribery Code

1. In this Code, "Marshalls" means Marshalls plc and its subsidiary companies.
2. Marshalls is committed to conducting its business with the utmost integrity and in accordance with the principles set out in the UK Bribery Act 2010. Marshalls plc is a signatory of the UN Global Compact, which informs and governs the way in which we do business. Marshalls expects its employees and business partners to respect and support our core values of trust, honesty and integrity and to recognise and implement this Code.
3. Marshalls does not tolerate the offering, giving, requesting, receiving or acceptance of bribes in any form.

A bribe is a financial payment or other form of reward that is intended to induce or influence an individual, company or public body to perform their functions improperly. This may include showing partiality, acting in bad faith or acting in a way that is inconsistent with a position of trust.

Bribes, for the purpose of this Code, include facilitation payments, kickbacks and any other reward, favour or payment designed to induce or influence the recipient to perform his or her functions improperly.

In the case of a foreign public official, it is not permitted to offer a payment or other reward to a foreign public official that may influence that official to give an advantage to our business, whether or not intended to induce improper performance.

Hospitality designed to improve business relations which is proportionate to the circumstances and which is not for an improper purpose is not usually regarded as a bribe. Further guidance can be found in the Procurement Policy Statement and the Gifts and Hospitality Guidance.

No employee, agent, consultant or business intermediary acting for Marshalls may offer, give, request, receive or accept any bribes, whether directly or indirectly.

What does this mean for me?

- Any alleged or suspected incident of bribery will result in a formal investigation, and may result in disciplinary action for any employee involved. Any activity or behaviour by an employee that is unlawful or prohibited by this Code will constitute gross misconduct and if proven, will result in dismissal. Employees may be suspended while investigations are carried out.
- Employees who engage or do business with third parties who act on behalf of Marshalls or represent Marshalls should ensure that this Code is drawn to their attention. Marshalls expects such third parties to comply with this Code and with the applicable law relating to bribery.
- Marshalls reserves the right to terminate immediately any contract or business relationship with any agent, consultant, or other business intermediary where bribery has occurred.

4. Our Policies and Procedures

Marshalls has adopted policies and procedures intended to address the potential risk of bribery and corruption. These include:-

- The Marshalls Code of Conduct;
- The Serious Concerns Policy; and
- The Group's Gifts and Hospitality Guidance, supported by quarterly returns recorded in a hospitality and gifts register;
- Regular training and testing of employees in sensitive positions; and
- The registration of interests to ensure potential conflicts are avoided.

These policies and procedures are regularly reviewed and updated, and should be read together with this Code. This Code and these policies can be accessed via the Marshalls intranet site, Marshalls NOW. The hospitality and gifts register and the register of interests are maintained at Landscape House by Joanne Whitehouse, Accounts Assistant, with oversight from the Group General Counsel and Company Secretary.

Among our procedures to mitigate risk are the following:-

- Supplier and customer risk assessments;
- Training for employees and those working for Marshalls or representing Marshalls in a business capacity;
- Written commitments from those we work with to engage with the principles in this Code.

5. Marshalls will work with its business partners worldwide to develop and improve good practice and to seek to eliminate bribery and corruption. It will select business partners who have adopted similar policies and objectives and will avoid doing business with those who act unlawfully or in a way that is not consistent with ethical business principles.

6. Monitoring and Compliance

- The Board of Marshalls plc has approved this Anti-Bribery Code and will set standards in relation to its principles and their application across the Marshalls Group.
- The Audit Committee of the Board will review procedures across the Group and will monitor their effectiveness.
- Designated individuals within each business area, together with the Group Company Secretary (who oversees day to day compliance) have responsibility for the implementation and development of such procedures.
- All employees have an obligation to comply with this Code and support and promote its principles in their business function.

7. Any employee having a question or concern in relation to this Code, the administration of Marshalls policies and procedures designed to prevent bribery, or any issue where guidance is sought on a particular set of circumstances

For further information contact: Shiv Sibal, General Counsel and Company Secretary

Issue Number 2.0

Marshalls plc, Landscape House, Premier Way, Elland, HX5 9HT

may raise it with their line manager or the General Counsel and Company Secretary (Shiv Sibal, Landscape House, Premier Way, Lowfields Business Park, Elland, West Yorkshire HX5 9HT: Tel: 01422 314767: email shiv.sibal@marshalls.co.uk)

8. Any employee who suspects that bribery has occurred or that there has been any other breach of this Code should report it in accordance with the procedure in the Serious Concerns Policy so that it can be formally investigated.

Approved by the Board and last reviewed at the Audit Committee Meeting on 9 December 2021

Martyn Coffey
Chief Executive

Vanda Murray
Chair of the Board